

Olga Syniakova begins the 2023/24 season at Teatro Real Madrid as Zofia Halka. Her following roles are Polina Pique Dame with Opéra de Lyon and Fidalma Il matrimonio segreto with Ópera de Las Palmas.

In 2022/23 Syniakova appeared at the Royal Danish Opera as Varvara Káfa Kabanová, and returned to the Palau de les Arts Valencia in a production of Jenůfa. She made her debut at the Zurich Opera as Orphee in Gluck's masterpiece of the same name.

Other notable debuts for Syniakova include Seattle Opera debut as Cherubino Le Nozze di Figaro, Polina Pique Dame at La Scala Milan under Timur Zangiev, Opera Oviedo debut with the role of Fenena Nabucco, Giulietta Les contes d'Hoffmann with Opera de las Palmas.

In concert she performed in Verdi's Requiem with the Brucknerhaus Orchestra in Linz under Maestro Markus Poschner, Concert with the PNB Orchestra Seattle under the direction of Emil de Cou and Alevtina Ioffe, a solo program "Rossini y España" at the Teatro Real Madrid under Lucía Marín, Orphée in Gluck's Orphée ed Euridice with Filharmonia de Galicia under P. Daniel, Pergolesi's Stabat Mater, and Rossini's Petite Messe solennelle under Fabio Biondi as part of Musikfest Bremen.

At the Palau de les Arts Valencia, Syniakova took on the roles of Alisa Lucia di Lammermoor, Contessa di Ceprano Rigoletto, Anfinomo Il Ritorno D'Ulisse In Patria, Laura in Tchaikovsky's Iolanta. In the previous season Valencia saw her as Ernesto Il Monde de la Luna, Second Lady Die Zauberflöte, and Orlofsky Die Fledermaus under the baton of P. Domingo.

2020 was to be marked by her USA debut with the Maryland Lyric Opera as La Frugola Il Tabarro and Zita in Gianni Schicchi.*

Syniakova collaborated with many distinguished conductors and stage directors among them Timur Zangiev, Paul Daniel, Valeriy Gergiev, Fabio Biondi, Markus Poschner, Beatrice Venezi and Placido Domingo, Graham Vick, Emilio Sagi, Jean-Louis Grinda.

Hailing from Ukraine, Syniakova was formerly a member of the Philharmonic and a soloist of the Dnipro Opera and Ballet Theater. Her operatic repertoire includes Romeo I Capuleti e I Montecchi, Sesto La Clemenza di Tito, Donna Elvira Don Giovanni, Charlotte Werther, Lola Cavalleria Rusticana, Carmen, Octavian Der Rosenkavalier, Olga

CONTACT

Valeriy Serkin

valeriy@tact4art.com
+43 699 12 18 22 64

"secure high notes and a shatteringly beautiful piano" - pnp.de

"Syniakova as the amorous teenage boy Cherubino, provides one of the most convincing "trouser roles" [...] I've ever seen." - Seattle Times

Eugene Onegin.

Awarded Grand Prix and Audience Choice Prize at the VIII edition of the Concurso Internacional de Canto Alfredo Kraus, 2nd Prize at 58 Concurso Internacional de Canto Tenor Viñas 2021, the "Best Mezzo Soprano" of the 2018/19 Season from Palau de les Arts Valencia, Grand Prix Winner in Compostela Lirica 2019 Competition, "Best voice in the competition" with an Audience choice and Jury choice Prizes from Concours International de Belcanto Vincenzo Bellini. She received a Special prize of Opéra de Massy from the I Concurso Internacional Lírico de Alicante 2019, 52ème Concours International de Chant Toulouse 2019 as well as the Gianni Bergamo Classic Music Award.